The Last Witness

Author Unknown

Four years after the "Titanic" went down, a young Scotsman rose in a meeting in Hamilton, Canada, and said, "I am a survivor of the "Titanic". When I was drifting alone on a spar on that awful night, the tide brought Mr. John Harper, of Glasgow, also on a piece of the wreck, near me.

"Man," he said, 'are you saved?"

"No," I said, 'I am not.'

"He replied, 'Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved.' The waves bore him away, but strangely, brought him back a little later, and he said, 'Are you saved now?"

"No," I said, 'I cannot honestly say that I am.'

"He said again, 'Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved.'

"Shortly after that he went down, and there, alone in the night, with two miles of water under me, I believed. I am John Harper's last convert."

Why The Bible View?

By Bill Brinkworth

The Bible View has been produced for over 16 years in one form or another. Let me share why I have produced it.

It dawned on me that many from our church visited people in homes, hospitals, and prisons. When we visited, we were not always leaving behind something for the visatee to spiritually grow on. Something should be left behind that will help them know more about the Father and His Word.

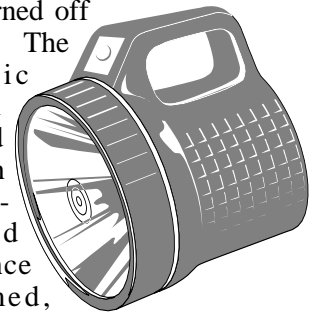

The Jehovah witness's, Mormons and others that visit, do not have the truth from the Word of God; yet when they leave, part of their teaching remains with the person they visited. Why are the Bible-believers not leaving some-

Shine Your Light

Gospel Herald

We stopped at a garage just at dusk one evening. Something about the engine needed attention. A mechanic looked into the trouble while a helper stood by, directing the beams of a powerful flashlight into the dark recesses under the hood. The helper turned away and in doing so inadvertently turned off the light. The mechanic looked up and with good-humored impatience exclaimed, "Shine your light. What are you here for?" Something to think about in that sentence about your life!

"Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven." Matt. 5:16 thing behind? They have the truth, and it is the only thing that will truly change lives. Something should be left with those visited.

It would be nice if we could leave the Bible with the people we have visited and trust that they would read it. Many do. Unfortunately, the Bibles are not always read. Folks many times are too intimidated or afraid to start reading God's Word. Sometimes leaving some interesting, or inspiring literature with them will spur them to read the Bible. That is the purpose of many tracts and this little paper.

Many other people have also realized the importance of leaving behind some type of Christian influence. Some have left this paper in the foyer of their churches, with those they visited on their bus routes, in doctor's offices, in laundry rooms, at nursing homes, and even mailed them weekly to people for whom they had burdens.

There currently are at least 150 churches using The Bible View weekly. At least one church that I know of is distributing 750 copies of this paper; so as you can see The Bible View is one tool that is reaching many with the principles from the Word of God. There are hundreds receiving the e-mail version of The Bible View, also.

Most Americans are bombarded with the world's unbiblical teaching all day long. They have it forced onto them daily from the television, school, newspapers, and other media. They are brainwashed with humanistic teaching. Something should point them to God and His Word. A tract, or even The Bible View, can help point them in the right direction.

Because of a lack of Biblical teaching, even in many churches, many do not have a clue as to how God wants them to live, or what His teachings are. The purpose of this paper is to give them some knowledge of God's word. Hopefully, when they have this knowledge they will seek His will, and obey it. If we do not tell them about God and what his Word says, who will?

If you are a Christian, you have a responsibility before the Lord to spread the Gospel and teachings from the Bible. Make a commitment to the Lord and yourself that you will give out several tracts each week or even The Bible View.

Our Testimony

Annie Flint

Christ has no hands but our hands

To do His work today;

He has no feet but our feet

To lead men in His way;

He has no tongue but our tongues

To tell men how He died;

He has no help but our help

To bring them to His side.

*We are the only Bible
The careless world will read,
We are the sinner's gospel,
We are the scoffer's creed;
We are the Lord's last message,
Given in deed and word;
What if our 'type' is crooked?
What if our 'print' is blurred?*

*What if our hands are busy
With other work than His?
What if our feet are walking
Where's sin's allurements is?
What if our tongues are speaking
Of things His lips would spurn?
How can we hope to help Him
And others to Him turn?*

“The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise.”

Proverbs 11:30

“I Sure Love My Jesus”

Walter Knight

A pastor, deeply concerned for the salvation of a Christ-rejecting lawyer, prepared a sermon especially for him, and urged that he attend a designated service. The lawyer accepted the invitation with thanks. He was unmoved, however, by the sermon, and left the service an unsaved man.

As he left the church, an illiterate woman, whose heart was filled with the love and compassion of Jesus, approached the learned lawyer, and, with tears streaming down her face, cried, “I sure love my Jesus, and won't you love my Jesus, too?” The dead-in-earnest plea went as a dart directly to the heart of the lawyer, who presently began to rejoice in the Saviour's love and forgiveness! Can we over-estimate the place and power of the personal plea to sinners to surrender to the Saviour?

“Do you think the world is getting better?” a reporter asked Evangeline Booth.

“Well,” she replied, “I'm doing all that I can to make it better. What are you doing?”

Make a commitment to yourself and the Lord to daily give a tract or The Bible View wherever you visit. They can be left at doctor's offices, bathrooms, hospitals, nursing homes, laundromats, lobbies, etc. If we do not give the world the Gospel and the teachings from the Word of God, who will?
