

Find Books of The Bible — Author Unknown

There are 16 books of the Bible hidden in the following story. Spacing of letters, words, and punctuation are not to be considered. Can you find all 16?

"I once made a remark about the hidden books of the Bible. It was a lulu — kept people looking so hard for facts, and for others it was a revelation. Some were in a jam; especially since the names of the books were not capitalized, but the truth finally struck home to numbers of the readers. To others it was a real job. We want it to be a most fascinating few moments for you. Yes, there will be some really easy ones to spot. Others might require judges to help them. I will quickly admit it usually takes a preacher to find one of them, and there will be loud lamentations when it is found! A little lady says she brews a cup of tea, so she can concentrate better. See how well you can compete. Relax now, for there really are 16 names of books of the Bible in this story."

Christian, You're Not ... Continued from Page 3

Many of the framers of our early government were godly men. They did want godly influence to continue to make America a country God would continue to bless.

God has given us a wonderful country. When a country drifts from godly principles, anarchy, mob-decision, and sin dominate its course. We have an opportunity to attempt to vote for candidates that think more in line with what God would want. Admittedly, it sometimes is an exercise in selecting the lesser of multiple evils. If we do not intervene, the world will go in a godless course. How will the ungodly know unless we, as Christians, show them what God approves or disapproves of by our vote?

How to Be Miserable Author Unknown

- ☞ Use "I" as often as possible.
- ☞ Be jealous and envious
- ☞ Think only about yourself.
- ☞ Talk only about yourself.
- ☞ Never forget a criticism.
- ☞ Always expect to be appreciated.
- ☞ Be suspicious.
- ☞ Listen greedily to what others say of you.
- ☞ Always look for faults in others.
- ☞ Do as little as possible for others.
- ☞ Never forget a service to others you may have rendered.
- ☞ Sulk if people are not grateful for your service to them.

"Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves."

Christian, You're Not Voting?

Bill Brinkworth

We have a wonderful country. Many gave their lives and others suffered great loss so that we would have a country where we could have some control over the government. Our early forefathers knew what it was like to have the government control everything by dictatorships and monarchies. They designed our ruling body so that it would be fair and unlike any other system in the world.

Yet today many take for granted what was given to them. Many do not participate in maintaining the freedoms that they inherited. Exercising the right to vote is one way to do that. Here are some of the many excuses some give for not voting in an election:

Thoughts on Gossip

From a message by Dr. Paul Tassel

- ☹ A tongue three inches long can ruin a man six feet tall.
- ☹ Gossip is a person with a strong sense of rumor.
- ☹ Gossip always seems to travel fastest over grapevines that are slightly sour.
- ☹ A groundless rumor often covers a lot of ground.
- ☹ A dog is loved by old and young. He wags his tail, and not his tongue.
- ☹ Remember, running people down is bad business; whether you are a motorist or a gossip.
- ☹ Men, like fish, would be safer if they kept their mouths shut.
- ☹ To speak ill of others is only a roundabout way of bragging about yourself.

If people share gossip with you, you can be assured that when you are not around, they are gossiping about you!

Christian, You're Not ...

"It won't make any difference, so why bother voting." By not voting, you are not even trying to make a difference in the government. All those who can vote in this country have the opportunity to vote for whom they think will do the better job. As a Christian, we should have God's wisdom on what is right and what is wrong according to the teachings of the Bible. Its wisdom and insight into what pleases our heavenly Father should guide us through life's many decisions. By not trying to make a decision in the election polls, we are letting others, even the ungodly, make decisions for us.

God commands us to make a difference in the world. He compares Christian living to the seasoning, salt. Without salt in our diets, our bodies would not function properly. Without salt on our food, it would not have the taste it could have. Hidden in the closet and still in its shaker, salt is useless. A non-voting Christian is much like that useless salt.

"Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men." Matthew 5:13

The discernment a Christian has gained from reading and obeying God's commands should show him that adultery, homosexuality, human cloning, abortion, drugs, immoral behavior, and other sins are intolerable to God. His vote at election time can be a vote to show that he does not approve of a nominee's practice or philosophy of wrongdoing.

In 2000, the presidential race was determined by the close voting of Florida's polls. The Florida Supreme Court-ordered recount determined that President Bush had won the race by 493 votes. Just a few votes did make a difference.

"I'm not even registered to vote." We have a constitution that many countries dream of having. One of the rights it gives us is the right to vote (Amendments 15, 19, 24, and 26). The right to vote was fought for and not just given to us in America.

"God doesn't want me to get mixed up in government". Where did you get that idea? In the Bible, Jesus even said to give to the government what is due the government. One of the unique opportunities we have to give our government stability is to vote. By not taking advantage of that right, you are not being the good citizen you are supposed to be.

"And he said unto them, Render therefore unto Caesar the things which be Caesar's, and unto God the things which be

God gives the birds their food, but he does not throw it into their nests.

— Greek proverb

God's." Luke 20:25

The Word of God even commands us to pray, listen to, and respect our government:

"I exhort therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men; For kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty." I Timothy 2:1-2 Also: Ezra 6:10, Romans 13:1

"God is in control, it doesn't matter what leader gets in." God wants all to obey Him all the time. He wants us to choose a godly lifestyle and gives us freedom to do so. Unfortunately, most used their freedom wrongly, and that is why sin is rampant. If God had his way there would be no sin; but He is allowing us to make those decisions for now. Obviously, we are letting him down by tolerating what He would not.

Israel's early history included a time when He was in control, but even then, there were God-appointed leaders. Soon, men were picking their own officials without seeking His opinion. This is often happening today. A vote is our Christian opportunity, that God has allowed us to still have, to have a say in who we want to rule.

"When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice: but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn." Proverbs 29:2

"For the transgression of a land many are the princes thereof: but by a man of understanding and knowledge the state thereof shall be prolonged." Proverbs 28:2

"God doesn't want me to stand up against the government that He put in office." If Christians did not vote, chances are His will was not followed in electing an official. He sometimes lets us get what we deserve by our improper choices or lack of influence. Besides, many in the Bible stood up to change what the government was doing. Moses stood against Pharaoh's ill treatment of God's people, Israel. Paul let all know he was a Roman citizen and had his rights under their laws (Acts 22:25-29). We are to stand up for the privileges He has allowed us to have.

"I don't want to cross the 'separation of church and state' line." The Constitution of America never said that we are not to get involved in politics. It does have a provision (First Amendment) to keep the government from intervening in the affairs of the church:

"Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government ..."
