The Walls Are Tumbling Down

Bill Brinkworth

There have always been people that have broken moral laws set up by God. Biblical restrictions are far more than ten, but following the Ten Commandment's morality have always been necessary if people are to live together in harmony.

However, in the last forty years or more, biblical lawlessness is rampant. Because of government, education, and weaker church teachings, the stigma of many taboos and immorality has been removed. Society is out of control. "Right" is often wrong, and "wrong" behaviors are socially accepted and practiced.

When the Ten Commandments, and many of the hundreds more, were discarded, the only remaining social compass is whatever an individual thinks is right. Obviously, that would be different for each person, and havoc would inevitably evolve, and it has.

Here are God's ten commandments and some of the repercussions that followed when God's laws were shunned and disobeyed:

1. "Thou shalt have no other gods before me." Exodus 20:3
Disobedience to this law has allowed many false religions to creep into nations that years ago would not have been permitted. Some of them deceptively call themselves "Christian." A closer study of the cult will reveal that they are not Christ-like at all. Their history reveals that they are not worshipping the God of the Bible but are worshipping a man-made deity.
2. "Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: 5 Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me;" Ex. 20:4-5
Toleration of all religions has allowed idolatry to also sneak into "churches." Statues in some places of worship are accepted as the worshippers claim "We are not praying to the figures," but they are as far as God is concerned. No one is to have images let alone pray to them or a person they represent. That is still idolatry, and it angers God.
3. "Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain; for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain." Ex. 20:7
"Vain" means to take the name of the holy God lightly, or not respectfully. Cursing with God's name attached to the curse is vain. His name is also said unrespectfully when someone says "Oh my ___," and includes His name in the blank. Tolerating swearing increases disrespect to our Creator.

4. "Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy. 9 Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work: 10 But the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates:..." Ex. 20:8-11
The Sabbath Day (Saturday) was to be honored in Old Testament days. Today, the day put aside to honor God is on Sunday. Without putting aside the day to worship and remember God further disrespects Him. When that day was respected, even the unsaved knew Sunday was set aside to worship God.

5. "Honour thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee." Ex. 20:12
Since the reading of God's Word has been discouraged in much of society, His commandments have also been ignored. Not knowing the fifth commandment has led to disrespect of parents which results in the family unit collapsing in many situations.
6. "Thou shalt not kill." Ex. 20:13
The disobedience to this crucial commandment has lessened the value on human life. Little unborn babies are butchered inside mothers wombs under the guise of woman's rights. No one has any right to murder. Elderly and the sick consider suicide, in some societies, rather than face the difficulties they are facing. Lessened punishments are given to some that have murdered others. Taking of life is included in many forms of entertainment including books, video games, and movies. There is nothing entertaining about killing! No wonder that the sin of murder is so rampant.
7. "Thou shalt not commit adultery" Ex. 20:14
The lack of practice of this commandment has led to an innumerable amount of divorces and broken families. In some circles, adultery is commonplace.
8. "Thou shalt not steal." Ex. 20:15
Ignorance of this law has led to not only increased thievery, but also lack of respect for what others have and what they have earned. Some, even politicians, justify taking what one has and give it to others through taxing and other laws.
9. "Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour." Ex. 20:16
A person's word is no longer his bond. Many wink at the sin of lying and justify it by saying "the ends justify the means." No matter the situation, not telling the truth is iniquity!
10. "Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbour's." Ex. 20:17
Wanting what another has is so commonplace that most do not even know it is sin. Whole societies, often encouraged by advertising, are geared around people not being satisfied with what they have and wanting what others have. Covetous is socially accepted in many places!

God knows the sinful nature of man. To help people live together He has laid out many laws that will enable mankind to get along more readily. When the walls of God's restrictions are removed, chaos and ruin will abound. That is why societies are suffering from today.

God's way and commandments must again be taught and practiced if people are to live together. God's way is always best!

Old Testament Commandments

Bill Brinkworth

There are many commandments in the Old Testament. Some sources declare there are 603 or 613. I have found, after my own attempt in counting them, that it depends on the counter and his criteria for what is considered to be a commandment from God.

Although, my count is only in the 300's, we have to agree that there are more than ten commandments that God has given men. The number ten somehow sticks in the mind of most people; and they think, along with their other misunderstandings of God's Old Testament commandments, that they are only responsible for those ten that God gave to Moses on Mount Sinai.

Here are several truths about the Ten Commandments:

- Obedience to these ten commandments is necessary in order for all men to live together in unity. They are the moral laws that God has given to man. If they are not followed, there will be problems in society.

If the sixth commandment is not honored, then anyone can kill anyone for any reason. When the seventh commandment is ignored, then families will be destroyed by adultery. If the eighth is not enforced or taught, then there will be no inhibitions preventing anyone from stealing what they want. On and on society will degrade, as it has today, because the basic moral commandments are not universally followed in society.

- Following these commandments will not guarantee anyone Heaven. Many, when asked if they are bound for Heaven, declare they are because they obey the Ten Commandments. Surprisingly, few even know what they are and are shocked that there are actually over 300 of them.

We are in a different time — a different dispensation. We are not under God's law. We are under God's grace. The way to Heaven is trusting in Christ's payment for our sins, not anything we can do. The law was only intended to give Old Testament believer's a glimpse (a shadow) of how the perfect worship would one day be.

“For the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect.” Hebrews 10:1

- These commandments give us an idea of what God likes and does not like. The desire of all Christians should be to please God. The commandments clearly show us the preferences and wisdom of the Creator.
- Some say there are over 600 Old Testament commandments. It is nearly impossible to know all of them, let alone keep them all.

*“For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.”
James 2:10*
